Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in a communications or public relations role on your team. As an Account Coordinator at Berk Communications in New York, I supported food, beverage, hospitality and lifestyle clients such as The Cheesecake Factory, Caesars Entertainment and Gran Coramino Tequila, and I learned what it takes to earn coverage and keep clients informed.

At Berk, I handled proactive media outreach, helped develop pitches that secured placements in digital and print outlets, and tracked coverage in Muck Rack. I also wrote the documents that keep accounts running smoothly: agendas, call recaps, briefing documents and monthly coverage reports. Analyzing media trends and campaign metrics taught me to look for the next story, not just report the last one.

Today, as an on-site supervisor for a mechanical contractor, I am the main point of contact between clients, general contractors and vendors. Keeping several parties aligned on deadlines, often under pressure, has sharpened the same skills that matter most in PR: clear, timely communication and steady follow-through.

With a B.S. in Business Administration in Marketing from UNC Charlotte, I bring both the strategic foundation and the day-to-day discipline to support your clients and your team from day one.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I would welcome the chance to talk about how I can help your team, and you can see examples of my work at gregfyfeportfolio.com.

Sincerely,

Gregory Fyfe
