Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in a communications or public relations role on your team. As an Account Coordinator at Berk Communications in New York, I supported hospitality, restaurant and spirits clients such as Caesars Entertainment, The Cheesecake Factory and Gran Coramino Tequila, on campaigns that earned coverage in People, Forbes, Parade, The Hollywood Reporter and TODAY.

For the Gran Coramino Reposado launch with Kevin Hart, I audited 47 target reporters and prepared the interview briefing sheet; the launch landed exclusives in Complex and The Hollywood Reporter. For The Cheesecake Factory, I coordinated National Cheesecake Day TV segments across several markets. At Fanatics Fest NYC, a three-day event that drew more than 125,000 fans, I tracked coverage live and kept media on schedule. For Caesars, I helped run hosted press trips and supported the openings of Pinky's by Vanderpump, Gordon Ramsay Burger and the new Caesars New Orleans. Along the way I wrote pitches, built media lists, monitored competitor coverage and produced the agendas, recaps and monthly coverage reports that keep accounts running smoothly.

Today, as an on-site supervisor for a mechanical contractor, I am the main point of contact between clients, general contractors and vendors. Keeping several parties aligned on deadlines, often under pressure, has sharpened the same skills that matter most in PR: clear, timely communication and steady follow-through.

With a B.S. in Business Administration in Marketing from UNC Charlotte, I bring both the strategic foundation and the day-to-day discipline to support your clients and your team from day one.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I would welcome the chance to talk about how I can help your team, and you can see examples of my work at gregfyfeportfolio.com.

Sincerely,

Gregory Fyfe
